

Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law should remain intact. The law has been highly effective in reducing the number of calls I receive from telemarketers. I can now answer the phone freely, without screening first. My phone line feels more officially my own. Thank you.